Life Path Report
Introduction

The following pages contain a brief evaluation of key elements of your birth chart, although it is by no means complete. Astrology can reveal many things about a person's life and personality, and you could study your chart for a lifetime without knowing the answers to all of your questions. The descriptions that follow will give you a "thumbnail" introduction to yourself through astrology.

In interpreting your chart, this report considers the sign of the planets and the north node in your chart, as well as their house placements. It also describes the sign of the Ascendant and the strongest aspects between the planets.

You may note that some of the following descriptions appear to contradict each other—and indeed we are all walking bundles of contradiction. If you examine yourself carefully, you will probably realize that you do in fact possess the qualities of both conflicting descriptions. Even though some parts of the reading may seem to clash, you will see that certain themes are repeated throughout the following pages. These are the ones that will become major issues in your life.

The readings stress that you are the ultimate decider of your fate. The stars may indicate the hand you were dealt at birth, but it is up to you to play that hand well enough to achieve your goals. Also, bear in mind that every "bad" aspect of a chart also has a "good" side. How it is expressed is really up to you. We tend to work at expressing ourselves more positively most of the time and only lapse into the negative behavior described when depressed, angry or scared. Or it is possible that some aspects may better describe your personality or behavior earlier in life. They may seem alien now because you have already worked through them.

A "Strength" number precedes each aspect description; this number takes into account how exact the aspect is, whether the aspect is a major or minor one, and whether an aspected planet is close to one of the four chart angles. The higher the Strength, the more you are likely to feel the aspect and to act it out in your life.
Cancer Ascendant

No matter what sign your Sun is in, Cancer Rising indicates that you are sensitive, cautious and have a strong need for security. You love the water, and if possible you will probably live near a river, lake or stream. No matter what your sex, you are domestic and maternal, and your home life is the most important element in your life. Since you do not crave the spotlight and can be cautious to the point of paranoia, you may have difficulty achieving your material goals in life. Your greatest success and personal satisfaction can be found in an occupation requiring you to deal with the public and to help others.

You have a phenomenal memory and never forget a hurt. Your emotions are very sensitive, so you are overly cautious in matters of the heart. For your peace of mind you require a peaceful and harmonious environment, and will react emotionally to any situation that is stressful or upsetting. You become sentimentally attached to mementos and other items of nostalgia, and will never part with possessions that commemorate past memories.

Physically, your problem areas are your stomach, digestive system, skin, chest and breast. Ulcers are a common problem with Cancer Rising. Your emotional state strongly affects your health, and genuine TLC is the best preventive measure you can take.

In appearance you are probably of short to medium height and have a wide chest (or a full bosom). Your face is full and round (and usually beautiful), and your eyes are full-lidded and may be green. Your hands and feet are proportionately smaller than the rest of you. As you age, be careful to watch your weight, especially around the middle.
Sun in Pisces

Pisces are well known for being sensitive, emotional and artistic. Their mood changes like a chameleon to blend with those around them. For this reason, it is imperative that their associates and immediate environment be of a positive nature. Pisces is the sign most likely to cry at a sad movie. Because you are so sensitive and compassionate, you tend to take on the problems of others. You do all you can to avoid hurting others and often help them if you can.

At times it may be difficult for you to separate fact from fantasy. You live in a semi-dream world, and you will retreat into your illusory world whenever the pressures of real life become unbearable. You are prone to daydreaming (especially when you were a child). Pisces are usually very shy, and this limits your ability to make friends easily. Learn to be less concerned about what others think of you and concentrate on improving your own self-image.

Because of your genuine desire to help others, you are an easy victim for those who would abuse your kindness. Be careful to surround yourself with people you can trust. If someone disappoints you, you become bitter and hurt--and your tongue can develop sharpness and acidity. Don't let your mission of serving others turn into a mission of martyrdom. There are always people who will take advantage of you if you let them. Instead of being passive, learn to stand up for yourself more often.

Pisces is also the sign of the mystic. They are either deeply religious (though not necessarily through an orthodox church) or have highly developed intuitive and psychic abilities. Feelings of greed and competition are foreign to Pisces, who find such energies irritating to their sensitive natures. As a result, they are usually not found in the dog-eat-dog corporate world--unless other factors in their charts give them this competitive edge.

In affairs of the heart, Pisces is devoted, tender, gentle and affectionate. Since Pisces has so much love to give, others often misunderstand their motives and consider them to be "coming on" to them. The truth is that Pisces is sympathetic and understanding of all others--not just their inner circle of loved ones. Pisces is known for being evasive with others, but rarely purposefully deceptive. The key word here is "purposefully." Often they deceive themselves and therefore consider themselves to be quite truthful when others see them as deceptive.

Sun in the Tenth House

This house placement brings an infusion of Capricorn energy to your sun (since Capricorn rules the tenth house). It is important for your self-image that you have a good reputation with others. You value material success and respect those who have achieved it. In your journey to the top, others will look to you for leadership. People with the sun in this position can be paternal toward loved ones (regardless of their sex).

You work hard at your chosen occupation and probably feel exhausted at day's end. Be sure to reserve some quiet time for yourself (such as weekday evenings) apart from the time you reserve for entertaining friends and lovers (such as weekends and holidays). You need a chance to recharge your batteries.

It is possible you will find lovers on the job rather than at social events. You have a natural ability to influence people and make a good impression. Others look up to you, and you probably have a reputation as a desirable lover (whether you deserve it or not). You seek a partner who has the same ambition and drive that you have, and preferably one who has realized some measure of success.

Moon in Sagittarius

Persons with this moon placement know their own emotional make-up very well and are able to make required adjustments in life quite easily. They have a strong sense of direction in life and set high goals for themselves. Others are continually amazed as they set seemingly impossible goals for themselves and then go on to achieve them. The only danger is that they will become ruthless in their pursuit of success and reach the top with no friends to congratulate them.

Although they are good at combining business with pleasure, when the chips are down business always wins out. Lunar Sagittarians are eternally optimistic, even when they should be exercising caution instead. They are often dedicated to philosophical causes and may even participate in non-political revolutionary practices at home or in the office. They want to make a difference--to influence the lives of others.
AstrolDeluxe Chart Interpretation for Albert Einstein

Gambling is a potential problem with this Moon placement, and this is partially a result of overoptimism. Natives may believe that they simply cannot lose and therefore take unconsidered risks. Although they feel very lucky, they actually are not.

Romantically, persons with Moon in Sagittarius are great companions to their mates. They need more than just sexual fulfillment from their partners—they require romance and spirituality. If it is necessary to terminate a relationship, they do so quickly and cleanly without looking back. They know something better is waiting just around the next corner.

Moon in the Sixth House

You can be very meticulous at work and are very organized. It is not difficult for you to dedicate yourself to an occupation that offers little reward. Instead you are very selfless and giving, and you would do well in a job in which you serve others. Avoid becoming too critical of coworkers' performance on the job; you need not become so emotional if they don't live up to your standards. This Moon placement also can indicate frequent change in your career.

Health and hygiene are particularly important to you, and you may have to resist the temptation to nag others about taking better care of themselves. You truly want to help others but can be placed in the role of martyr if you're not careful. It is likely that you will undergo emotional crises in your own life. Don't borrow others' troubles.

In your relationships you tend to either serve or be served, and this is O.K. as long as one partner does not dominate the other. Strive for equality with your mate; this will result in a more stable, long-lasting relationship. You are a considerate and thoughtful lover and can teach your mate a great deal.

Mercury in Aries

You are an impulsive and spontaneous thinker, and you must develop greater patience and self-control in order to use your quick mind to its fullest potential. There seems to be no limit to your bright ideas, but you are not so strong on discipline and follow through, so that you start many projects but finish very few. You enjoy debate and argument, and you can have a sharp tongue.

Others find you witty and entertaining, and indeed you have a talent for "thinking on your feet." You may be quick-tempered, especially with others who cause you delay or opposition, thus curbing your spontaneous style. Your mind moves very quickly, and you often act impulsively without considering all of the possible repercussions of your deeds. One of your greatest challenges is to develop greater concentration and self-control.

Sound has a strong effect on you and soft music helps soothe your nerves when you feel frazzled. With your keen senses of sight and hearing, you are very observant. You are also very sensitive to smells and cannot tolerate foul odors. Your sense of touch is not as well developed, and you will have to work at it to become dexterous.

You have definite ideas about what you do and do not want, and at times you may insist that your way is the only way. Like all good warriors (ruled by Aries), you are alert and ready for battle should the need arise. However, you are at a loss for diplomatic skills during times of peace. The more self-discipline you develop, the less conflict you will have in your life.

Mercury in the Tenth House

You began planning for your career early in life, and you understand the role of education in achieving professional goals. With your strong organizational and managerial skills, you could easily pursue more than one career at a time. You would do well in careers involving communication, travel, or public speaking. Your father was a major influence in forming your ideas and beliefs.

Venus in Aries

With Venus in Aries, you have a naive, impulsive approach to love. If you are not careful to take time to get to know someone, you may marry for pure physical attraction rather than for love and commitment. Since you tend to act impulsively in relationships, you can sometimes be inconsiderate of the feelings of others.

Your desire nature is very intense, and you desire a direct and impulsive lover. Although you are romantic, you are not necessarily subtle. You seek immediate gratification of your needs--in effect, move in for the kill. If a potential lover shows no interest, you will not wait around until they do. You approach each new love with enthusiasm and joy, enjoying every moment for itself.

Because you are harder to "tie down" than the average person, you would be better off with a lover who is more stable and patient than you. They would serve as an anchor to keep you still long enough to appreciate being grounded in a love relationship. They must be able to see that you are not really fickle, but rather childishly enthusiastic about life.

You are "in love with love" and are frequently disappointed when your torrid romances don't last. Instead of jumping into relationships head first, you should learn to be patient and really get to know your partner before giving your heart away. It would be best for you to choose a partner who is more cautious than you are and to let them set the pace of the relationship.

Venus in the Tenth House

You are highly ambitious, and you will work hard to achieve success in your career. While it is true you want the advantages of material success, you also seek the approval and respect of your neighbors and peers. You have a talent for pleasing others with your voice through public speaking or singing. You tend to form emotional attachments with people you meet through your career.

Mars in Capricorn

You are highly ambitious and respect others with positions of authority. It is important to you that others see you as responsible and self-reliant. You often achieve your goals because you are so patient and persistent. Success is very important to you. It is important to you that the people you deal with fulfill their responsibilities.

You are very practical about your use of energy and resources. Very little goes to waste around you. Although you may warm up to physical activity slowly, you are very thorough about what you accomplish once you get started.

You seek a partner with Capricornian qualities, such as stability, ambition, and self-discipline. It is important to you that you be treated with respect in your relationships and can even have a paternal attitude toward your lover (no matter which sex you are). You need a lover who offers you security and who will be satisfied in a relationship that is somewhat structured.

Sexually, you tend to be faithful to your lover. You will be happier if you develop one relationship that can become long-lasting and secure. It will be doubly satisfying if you and your partner share a common goal or dream.

Mars in the Seventh House

Your close personal relationships are a source of conflict in your life, and you tend to pick partners who bring out the most aggressive side of your nature. In order for your love life to be more peaceful and satisfying, you will need to cultivate the art of compromise. Avoid a tendency to jump into altercations with others without first making a genuine effort to understand their point of view.

Jupiter in Aquarius

[Type here]
AstrolDeluxe Chart Interpretation for Albert Einstein

You are highly intuitive and tolerant of differences in others. With your natural ability for working with groups, you could inspire others to help bring about humanitarian changes in society. You are an excellent diplomat and can help smooth over differences between groups of seemingly incompatible people. You have a natural talent for occult knowledge, for you recognize the existence of forces beyond those you can see, feel and measure.

Jupiter in the Ninth House

You are highly intuitive (sometimes prophetic) and are interested in religion, law and philosophy. You will benefit from travel and dealings with foreigners, and you can guide and inspire others with your global perspective. Instead of being critical of foreign people and cultures, you are attracted to them. You will receive the greatest recognition for your accomplishments later in life.

Saturn in Aries

Success and material wealth give you a sense of security, and you will work hard for what you want, but you sometimes lack the caution and patience to see your plans through to a successful conclusion. One of your greatest challenges in life will be to develop self-discipline and patience with others. You need to develop a keener sense of timing and an ability to wait for the right moment rather than charging forward with enthusiasm. You are an independent individual, and you value your freedom highly.

Saturn in the Tenth House

You are independent and self-reliant, and you will encounter a series of obstacles in your career in order that you may learn to accept and carry out even the most unpleasant responsibilities. There may be delay in achieving success, and you will succeed only after much hard work and careful planning. One or both of your parents may have been domineering and critical.

Uranus in Virgo

You have a sharp, analytical mind, and you will use it to find workable solutions to the many ills of society. You are interested in alternative forms of healing, such as psychic healing and herbal treatments. Since you are cautious by nature, you will think through... all your ideas thoroughly to be sure no details are overlooked. One of your challenges is to learn to listen to your intuition rather than just your rational mind.

Uranus in the Third House

You have a curious and inventive mind, and you frequently change your mind. With your lightning quick thinking, you would be a good writer or public speaker. You are very restless and impatient. Following your strong desire for travel, you may visit many foreign lands. As a child you were probably influenced by an adult role model who had very unorthodox beliefs.

Neptune in Taurus

* (1874-1887) *

Neptune will next enter Taurus in approximately 2045 A.D. You have a deep love of nature and for creative works of art. With your good judgment and sharp business sense, you could easily succeed. You also have the ability to heal others through your personal revelations.

Neptune in the Eleventh House

You are highly imaginative and idealistic and should trust in your intuition. Because you seek perfection in your friends, you may suffer repeated disappointments as you discover they are merely flawed humans. You have many wonderful dreams; you must learn to apply yourself to obtain them. If Neptune is afflicted, you may attract friends who are unreliable, or who deliberately mislead you.

Pluto in Taurus

* (1851-1882) *

Your generation gave birth to the Industrial Revolution and to the "old money" families who acquired their wealth during that time. If poorly aspected, people born with Pluto in Taurus can be greedy and stubborn. You feel a strong desire to leave behind a permanent legacy for future generations.

Pluto in the Eleventh House

[Type here]
AstrolDeluxe Chart Interpretation for Albert Einstein

You will attract strong and powerful friends who will have a powerful influence on you, and your greatest transformation in life will come through your friendships. You are dedicated to principles which will benefit all mankind, and you will fight for humanitarian reform in society. Choose your friends carefully and avoid those who require you to act against your will to gain their approval.

Pisces Midheaven

You would be happiest in a career area that allows you to express compassion and emotional sensitivity. You feel deeply and are good at intuiting the needs of others. You are emotionally adaptable and can be an agent for change. You feel the call of the infinite and can express drama or mystery in your work. You see so much of the whole that it is difficult to confine yourself to practical realities.

You lend your efforts to any project that seeks to care for and heal the broken and suffering, such as hospitals, missions, charities, hotlines, pet shops, or kennels. You may comfort others by introducing beauty into their world in the form of art or music. If you work for government or the church, it is not for security but in order to serve. At your highest, you do not fear death because you are not focused on the self. When you do focus on the self your lack of groundedness can plague you with nameless fears. Adaptability can become superficial novelty seeking. You could become addicted to drugs or alcohol. Hypersensitivity to hurts or insults (some imagined) could propel you into a pillowy fantasy world in which you are not a healer but a parasite. A personality that began as merely colorful could become scandalous. If you are going to sacrifice yourself, at least you could do so in a constructive way. Educate yourself to make wise judgments, prefer service to sensation, and pursue your dream with faith and confidence.

Occupations consistent with your sympathetic style of work include doctor, nurse, therapist, caretaker, musician, composer, poet, artist, entertainer, film maker, psychiatrist, spiritualist, psychic, marketer, advertiser, pharmacist, vintner, crusader, reformer, or philanthropist. For the most personal career guide, also consider the nature of any planets which fall in the 10th house or conjoin the Midheaven, the sign and house placements of Neptune, ruler of the Midheaven, and any aspects which other planets make to the Midheaven.

Planets in Aspect

Moon square Midheaven (Strength: 10.31)
AstrolDeluxe Chart Interpretation for Albert Einstein

Your emotions are very intense, and at times it may seem that you are ruled by your moods and feelings. You do not hide your emotions very well, and those closest to you have probably learned to give you lots of space when you become temperamental.

In both your personal and professional lives, your emotions often are in conflict with what others need or expect from you. Before you react defensively, closely examine your motivations. Are the demands from others really so unreasonable, or do you just want everything your way? Would you still consider it unreasonable if the situation were reversed?

In time, you will learn to maintain your individuality while living in cooperation with others. When your mind and heart are working together harmoniously, you're much happier and successful in all your relationships.

Moon trine Venus  (Strength: 9.53)

You are an eternal optimist about human nature and are hopeful about having fulfilling relationships. You are very trusting of others and believe that your trust will not be violated. Because your motives in dealing with others are usually quite honorable, others open up to you and enjoy your company.

With this aspect in your natal chart, you are probably attractive (especially with the tighter aspects). This may not be merely a physical beauty—in your case beauty truly is as beauty does. Others are drawn to your gentle disposition and creative nature. They find your optimism contagious and feel inspired by you.

You would do well in any career which involves dealing with people on a regular basis, such as public relations. You have a way of injecting energy into a group just when others are feeling discouraged. Because you refuse to adopt a negative attitude about life, others are forced to be more optimistic in your presence.

Although you have good judgment, you never try to force others to accept your opinion. You are polite and gracious and avoid vulgarity and coarseness. You demand honesty and sincerity from those closest to you and are willing to give the same. You enjoy children and will derive much joy from being a parent. Young people are attracted to you by your easy-going, sincere nature.

You are somewhat private about your personal life and don't try to pry into the affairs of others. Yet you will always offer a shoulder to a friend if asked.

Mercury conjunct Saturn  (Strength: 8.97)
AstrolDeluxe Chart Interpretation for Albert Einstein

You are a serious thinker and are well aware of your responsibilities in life. Your childhood training instilled you with these qualities, and you can use them to make the most of your time and resources. You learn a great deal from your everyday activities and see a larger meaning behind the mundane occurrences in life. Your mind contains a wealth of information which you continually supplement as you mature.

Although you are a very patient and understanding listener, you are careful about stating your own opinion in life. You do not speak out unless you are sure of your information. It is quite likely that you will succeed in life because you are able to carefully plan every step. However, you must guard against a tendency to become pessimistic or even depressed.

In your career you would do well in education, politics, drafting, architecture, engineering, conservation, or mathematics. It is necessary that your chosen occupation present a challenge; otherwise you will eventually become bored with it. If you feel that you are appreciated, your contributions to your work are enormous. You work best on your own so that you are not distracted by others. Because you are honest and sincere, your supervisors will be able to rely on you to do your best. You are willing to work hard for what you want.

You need a close friend in whom you can confide. Since you tend to be shy, pick someone you know you can trust. You suffer physically from extreme pressure and tension and must be careful to unwind periodically—even though it may appear to you that you are wasting time. Learn to laugh at your own mistakes and shortcomings.

In your love life you need a partner who is trustworthy and whom you can respect. You hold traditional values regarding affairs of the heart and seek a lover who is sincere, honest, and responsible. You seek a relationship that is secure and, because you are traditional by nature, will resist change unless you are convinced it is for the better.

Mars trine Pluto (Strength: 7.80)

You have an innate talent for problem-solving and can get to the root of the matter quicker than others. Also, you are not afraid to stick up for your rights or those of your friends and can demonstrate great courage in doing so. The universe seems to funnel needed spiritual energy into you at times of crisis or confrontation.

You are aggressive in pursuing your needs, but you consider that one of your primary needs is to improve on the state of society as a whole. You understand society’s ills and what caused them. You may feel an obligation to do something about it. This will bring you greater satisfaction than standing back and distancing yourself from the situation.
AstrolDeluxe Chart Interpretation for Albert Einstein

You are highly sexual, but require more from a lover than good sex. He or she must love you spiritually as well as physically. Your loving nature reaches out to all those around you and touches them deeply. You are not a fair weather friend and will offer assistance whenever you think you can help.

Your strength and self-confidence can inspire an insecure lover through your actions. Sex is an important part of your love relationships, serving as a strong communication link between you. You are spontaneous and uninhibited in your lovemaking. You also have a talent for making the best of uncomfortable or embarrassing sexual moments.

Jupiter square Pluto  (Strength: 7.24)

This aspect indicates that you are likely to rebel against existing traditions and values and you tend to fly in the face of authority. You expect to receive a large return on a very small investment of energy, and you often complain that your burden in life is too heavy. In truth, you are unwilling to accept full responsibility for your life. You should be careful how you invest your resources; you could suffer disappointment in this area. A particular area of danger is economic overextension—you feel confident that you can buy on credit, hoping the money will be there when you need it.

In your career you would prefer large projects that affect many and in which you can make a financial "killing." You are good at "wheeling and dealing," but at times become overconfident and take unnecessary risks that can lead to legal problems. Banking, politics and professional gambling are possible vocations for you. But be careful not to "burn" anyone; otherwise, you'll find yourself in their shoes soon enough.

It is possible that you will meet lovers through your job. People with this aspect often go to extremes in their love life—either a vulgar creep or a very proper and refined gentleman (or lady). You appreciate an impulsive partner who can do things with you on the spur of the moment.

Unless you can look at your own imperfections and improve your attitude, you will have trouble achieving your goals in life. Pluto demands introspection and self-examination, and this is the key to your outer success. Otherwise, you are likely to rebel completely and refuse to learn from the lessons life presents to you.

Venus square Ascendant  (Strength: 6.65)

Relating to others is easy and fun for you, and those around you will find you quite charming. One possible drawback of this aspect is that you will become dependent on your social charm to get you by in life rather than developing your natural talents and skills. You want to succeed and even have some incredible ideas and practical goals in mind, but you lack the motivation to follow through. Making firm plans locks you into a commitment, and you do not want that responsibility. In this way you can get a reputation for being shallow and insincere, and at times you can be.

You can become too attached to past memories which can consume your energy and interfere with your achieving the success you desire. You would do best in a career which would allow you to earn most of your money without working, such as through royalties, rental income, etc. This way you can support yourself in the style to which you want to become accustomed without having to work 9 to 5. Be careful not to make generous offers to people that you cannot deliver. Sometimes it's better to promise nothing.

Your reputation is important to you, and you care a great deal what others think of you. You will attempt to beautify your home in order to impress others and want people to see your home life as happy and fulfilling, even if it isn’t. Speak up and let your partner know what your needs are, and listen when your partner communicates his or her needs to you. Be generous and kind to friends in need, even if there’s nothing in it for you. That type of generosity has a way of being returned when you most need it.

Jupiter opposite Uranus (Strength: 6.21)

You will encounter much outside interference in your life. Don't run from these problems, but face them head-on. Your tremendous intellectual skill will help you overcome them. You are ready to take on anyone in mental combat and fear no opponent. Your innate intuition also allows you to have the upper hand in competition.

You can succeed in anything you undertake. You may be drawn to the fields of education, law, religion, politics, travel or even the occult (Uranus rules astrology). You value education highly and see it as a key to success.

Be careful, though, not to abuse your authoritative power. This will alienate your closest friends. Try to understand others’ limitations and allow for them.

You enjoy sexual experimentation and can be quite impulsive in the bedroom. You need to feel you are free within the relationship and will not stay with a partner who restricts you. You would be able to handle an "open marriage" with the right partner, provided that the situation is handled truthfully and with consideration.

Saturn square Ascendant (Strength: 4.53)

It is not easy for you to comfortably assert yourself because you fear opposition from others. You underestimate your own capabilities and assume that everyone else is superior to you, although this is not the case. When you have an altercation with...

someone, you prefer to retreat rather than fight. However, if your back is against the wall and you must fight, you will use every method available to you to survive.

You are sometimes overly cautious and may allow opportunities to pass you by because you hesitate to act on them. Although it may take you a while to set your goals, you are willing to work hard for what you want once they are set. No matter what type of work you do, you will give it your all.

Your childhood was most likely lacking in warmth and affection. Your parents may have seemed a bit dictatorial to you and had a no-nonsense attitude toward childrearing. Although you respected your parents (or whoever raised you), there was no tenderness between you. This makes it difficult for you to accept and trust persons in positions of authority.

One of your main goals in life is to achieve and maintain financial security. You are quite capable of this, although you may doubt it from time to time. Since you are willing to work hard to achieve your goals and patient enough to not give up, you will eventually receive the recognition you deserve. Obtaining this respect from others will lessen your emotional insecurity and make it more likely that you will meet a loved one to share your success with you.

Sun sextile Pluto  (Strength:  4.03)

You have a very strong will and at some level know that you can accomplish anything you set out to do. Because you recognize that you require knowledge to achieve your goals in life, you have developed a unique ability for communication. Others find your message to be hypnotic and intense; this ability to communicate so effectively with others is your most valuable asset.

Others have confidence in you, and you would be very good at handling others’ resources. It is your destiny to share your many talents with others and to inspire them with your example. You live life with self-confident intensity, and others know that they can trust you with their deepest secrets.

You are an advocate of social change and seek to alleviate the oppressive social conditions that must be tolerated by the less fortunate members of society. You have no patience with social injustice and are not afraid to take on city hall if necessary. Since you are so dedicated to this cause, you would be an excellent spokesperson for any group working for social change.

In your close relationships you have a talent for encouraging others to get back on their feet and keep moving forward in the face of temporary setbacks. Others come to you when they need an ego boost, and you seem to know exactly what to say to restore their self-confidence.

AstrolDeluxe Chart Interpretation for Albert Einstein

You are naturally interested in and have a talent for metaphysics and occult matters, and you could even make your living in a New Age field. You have strong psychic abilities (whether you know it or not) and use this power to see to the root of problems (your own and others'). Learn to depend on your intuition more than on your logical reasoning skills.

Mercury square Ascendant  (Strength: 3.51)

Without intending to, you often express yourself with such force that other people misunderstand your meaning or are offended. Your sometimes aggressive nature is nothing more than an attempt to compensate for your lack of confidence, although most people don't realize this. You use flattery to win people over, but they can usually detect your insincerity. As your own worst critic, you continually compare your accomplishments to those of your peers.

It is possible that your education may have been delayed because of more pressing family priorities. If this is the case, you may feel intimidated by competitors who have more education or training. If you are willing to complete your education and work hard to "catch up" with your competitors, you can be as successful as they are. Remember, people can only treat you like an inferior if you feel that they are your superior. The better you feel about yourself, the better others will treat you.

In your love life you must learn to relax and be yourself when you meet new friends and lovers. You project so much nervous energy that this is sometimes all someone sees when they meet you. You send out body language which at times directly conflicts with your verbal message. Ask your partner to pay more attention to your words until you improve your communication skills to bring your verbal and nonverbal messages into agreement. Avoid indulging in gossip or spreading rumors. This could cause serious damage to your relationships.

Uranus square Pluto  (Strength: 3.45)

This aspect is a "generational" one and appears in the birth charts of those born in the early to mid-1930s. This time in history was characterized by a global apathy toward the injustices taking place in the world. The Depression was underway in America, while Hitler was making his move in Europe. Although there was evidence that Hitler was committing atrocities against others, the world preferred to look the other way.

Similarly, persons born at this time tend to shirk responsibility for protecting their own freedom. Instead, they expect that there will always be someone else to fight the battles for them. However, if problems develop in your immediate environment, you will react immediately. This is because such problems affect you directly rather than being

"somewhere out there." For instance, you may neglect to vote on election day and then complain bitterly about the choice of the majority. Try to be more direct in dealing with situations that are not yet causing you problems. Don't assume that someone else is taking care of it.

Keep your finger on the pulse of the political and social conditions around you. Be wary of those who attempt to claim a position of power while others are looking away in apathy. Do what you can to call attention to injustice and wrongdoing. You'll feel much better about yourself if you do. It is possible that you will fight against those who would abuse power through legal methods. Or you may inspire others to resist them or even see that they are removed from office.

In your love life you may find it difficult to institute needed changes in your relationships. Be careful about establishing new affairs "on the rebound" after ending a relationship. Be sure to approach new lovers realistically rather than with a sense of escapism.

Uranus trine Neptune (Strength: 3.41)

This aspect can be found in the charts of everyone who was born in the mid-1930s to mid-1940s. For this reason, all persons who were born during this time share its qualities, although they will not all manifest them in the same ways.

If you examine the history books to see what occurred during this time period, you will find that Adolph Hitler, Joseph Stalin, Benito Mussolini and Emperor Hirohito dominated millions and changed the course of history. Therefore, this aspect is commemorative of the planetary apathy which allowed their horrendous acts to take place.

You and others who entered the world during this time hold the key to preventing a replay of this unfortunate time in history. Because you have the ability to see through dishonesty, it falls upon your shoulders to communicate your wisdom to humanity as a whole. You should refuse to support anyone in a position of power until you know all about them. And encourage others to challenge those in authority who do not listen to the input of the public they represent.

Because you were born at a time when the world was surrendering its power into the hands of a few ruthless tyrants, you cannot stand being told what to do with your life. You prefer to make your own decisions and to suffer the consequences, if any. You prefer to analyze all ideologies and philosophies for yourself rather than blindly accept anyone's dogmas or theories.

Sun conjunct Mercury (Strength: 2.42)

You have very strong opinions and don't hesitate to state them without being asked. This can be irritating to people, especially since you tend to dismiss their own opinions as unimportant. You usually have the first and last word in any discussion. In your haste to be first, you may make decisions prematurely. This means you may have to retract what you've said later, and this is not easy for you. You don't like to admit you were wrong and can be very self-centered.

You are creative and could be a good leader if you would take the time to make good decisions. You need to take others' needs into consideration and to learn a little humility. At times you can be something of a "know-it-all," which can be very annoying to others. Try to cultivate some objectivity.

Communication comes naturally for you, and you can express yourself articulately. You love to give orders but may become frustrated if they are not followed. You are not above intimidating others to get their support. Express this aspect more positively by inspiring rather than threatening others. Your enthusiasm can be infectious, and you can work well with the public. You are good at making and carrying out plans.

In your love life, be careful of your tendency to misinterpret your partner's signals. Try to see yourself through their eyes during times of misunderstanding. Your partner should be able to take your directness and lack of diplomacy. You speak straight from the heart.

Moon inconjunct Ascendant (Strength: 2.12)

This combination indicates that your Moon sign and Rising sign are very different (read the descriptions of the sign of your Moon and your Ascendant). Because of this, the image that you project to others is very unlike the real inner you. In maintaining balance between these different sides of yourself, you have developed emotional discipline, and this allows you to adjust more easily than many to the demands of life.

You put the needs of your loved ones before your own, and in the process you are often taken advantage of. You are always the first to volunteer when something needs to be done, but you are also the last to ask when you have needs to satisfy. Sometime in life you must develop the ability to say "no" to those who would abuse or belittle your generous assistance. Devote your compassionate energy to those who appreciate your help and who return it in kind.

Your love life is very volatile and subject to frequent changes. At times it may help to slow down your pace on purpose and allow you and your partner a break from your frenzied pace. It may also help if you occasionally spend time away from each other. Perpetual change in itself can become a rut into which you fall. A little distance can give you a better perspective.

Sun sextile Mars (Strength: 1.68)
AstrolDeluxe Chart Interpretation for Albert Einstein

Communication is your greatest strength, and you could be successful in: writing, teaching, media, or detective work. You would reap great satisfaction from working with young people to help prepare them for the future. You would also be a competent advisor for leaders or others in positions of power. In such an occupation you could rise to a prominent position and gain widespread recognition for your efforts toward excellence.

You have an incredible amount of energy and can accomplish as much as two other people combined. You are overflowing with creative abilities and constantly seek new avenues for expressing your talents. You hold firm opinions but do not force them on others, recognizing instead their right to believe as they wish. Before reacting to any situation you closely examine all your options. If you should make an error in judgment, you don't mind admitting so.

Because you recognize the need to keep informed on current events and developments, you are probably an avid reader. You are confident of the position you take in any discussion because you are well informed. You also like to keep at least one eye peeled for new opportunities that you may be able to take advantage of.

In your love life you have strong physical desires, but you like to know a partner very well before engaging in a sexual exchange. You are a very reliable mate, and you can inspire your lover with your enthusiasm. The best mate for you would be one who encouraged you to develop your fullest potential.

Moon trine Saturn  (Strength: 1.66)

You may have only a few friends, but what you lack in number you make up in quality. Your friends (and lovers) must respect themselves in order to earn your respect. You are a loyal friend and would never let down another who is depending on you.

You have a fantastic memory and could use it well in such careers as: management, politics, public relations, law, education, or even engineering. You seek a position of authority and would be very fair with your underlings--as long as they lived up to their part of the deal. You look for a well-developed sense of responsibility in those with whom you work.

You may appear to be conservative to those around you, but the truth is that you have a good amount of common sense. You are not overly cautious, just careful. For this reason you are also very law-abiding. In making decisions you will examine all options carefully before acting.

Friends enjoy your company and the sense of well-being they derive from your emotional stability. This is a quality that can also help children to grow and develop their own stable foundation, and you would be a kind disciplinarian as a parent.
AstrolDeluxe Chart Interpretation for Albert Einstein

Chances are that your more satisfying love affairs will come later in life after you have reached a height of maturity. You behave responsibly in your relationships and expect the same of your partners.

Sun square Moon  (Strength:  1.55)

It may seem to you that you are required to make great concessions in order to achieve your goals in life. This can lead to bitterness and resentment on your part if you are not careful to keep a positive attitude. This can manifest itself not only in your career but also in your personal and social relationships. You may be continually forced to prove your worth to employers and other people in positions of authority.

You seem to constantly miss opportunities because you do not have the proper skills. The truth of the matter is that you must make more than a halfway effort at achieving your goals and must be willing to exercise the self-discipline required to do this.

You must be willing to work hard for what you receive in life. You must also be able to handle your ego and not let it interfere with your ambitions. You still do have many things to learn in this life. It is hard to obtain the required recognition and support from people of influence with a huge chip on your shoulder.

You may also have problems in relationships with the opposite sex. You like to argue and can be quite defensive, making it impossible to reason with you. This stems from your own emotional insecurity and can only be remedied by your willingness to compromise. As in all other areas of your life, you must be willing to invest just as much as you hope to gain.

In sex you may have doubts about your ability to be a good lover. But in reality you are probably one of the most experienced of lovers because of your desire to prove your competence. Relax and enjoy the good things in your life. You can be much too hard on yourself.

Sun conjunct Midheaven  (Strength:  1.37)

You are highly ambitious, both professionally and socially. It is important to you that your peers respect and admire you and look to you for leadership. Indeed, you insist on maintaining control of your own life, and this has probably brought about power struggles with your elders since your childhood days. Your father (or the person who played that role in your life) was a major influence in your life.

With your strong need for autonomy and independence, you would probably be happiest working for yourself. If you are forced to work under someone else, you have a tendency to rebel against their authority over you. Just remember that no person is an island, and eventually you will need the assistance and companionship of others.
AstrolDeluxe Chart Interpretation for Albert Einstein

Curb your ego's strong drive to be in control and learn to cooperate with others as equals.

Developing patience and respect for others will help make you the valued leader you aspire to be. Learn to share the spotlight with others, and they will be touched by your generosity. It's much better that others are inspired to sing your praises rather than continually having to do it yourself.

Sun conjunct Saturn  (Strength:  1.36)

You take life seriously and have an incredible ability to learn from every experience in life. You can handle responsibility better than most, but you will resent it if others try to pass on their loads for you to carry. It may appear that you have to struggle overly hard for your material gains. Don't waste time playing the "poor me" game. You have an ability to do without the luxuries of life and to succeed nonetheless.

As a child you probably received strict discipline and therefore matured early. You may have experienced restriction from either or both parents during your early years. You learned early in life that the world does not owe you anything, and you never expect a free lunch from anyone. Yet you emerged with a strong sense of ambition and are creative in using your material resources. Force yourself to be generous with others; the leaner years have given you an appreciation for what you have, but that is no reason to be tight about it.

Idle conversation is a waste of time to you, and you usually speak only if you have something important to say. You would do well in a career in management, teaching, politics, law, science and research, or mathematics. You have the required self-discipline to shoulder the burden of such a demanding career. Just be careful not to become bitterly disappointed when you encounter setbacks. Also, be careful not to "worry yourself sick" or bring about physical ailments through overwork.

In love relationships you seek a partner who has a good sense of self-respect. He or she must also totally support your efforts to achieve your goals in life. They must also be willing to endure some sacrifice in order to receive a future payoff. You need a mate who is sincere and humble, and who can understand your total devotion to your life's dream. Try to choose a partner who does not take life quite so seriously as you do so that they can help lighten you up when you get too heavy.

Neptune sextile Ascendant  (Strength:  1.23)

You have a keen imagination and at times may find it difficult to separate fact from fantasy. You are appalled at social injustices you see in the world and feel you should do something about it. Yet you shy away from confrontation and usually leave such matters to others who are more assertive in nature. Others find you to be compassionate and sympathetic, and you are enormously sensitive to others around you and to your environment.

With your active imagination, you are prone to exaggeration and embellishment in relating your experiences to others. This can be a valuable trait when used in the fields of acting, public speaking or writing. You are not competitive by nature because of your sensitivity and fear of failure. For best results stick to areas where you feel quite competent rather than taking on seemingly impossible tasks. Then as you become more confident you can take on more challenging projects.

In love relationships you rely on your intuition and subtle body language to communicate your feelings to your partner. It is wonderful that you have this ability, but it is still best to communicate your feelings and needs with words to be sure your message is clear. Making decisions is not a simple matter for you, since you believe that all options deserve equal attention and consideration.

Mercury inconjunct Uranus (Strength: 1.17)

Your own needs are often neglected in order that you may serve others or the world at large. At times you will have tremendous bursts of energy and enthusiasm; at others you will feel guilty about not completing the many projects you’ve started. Learn not to be so hard on yourself, as you tend to be much more judgmental of yourself than of others.

Since you sincerely wish to serve others and make the world a better place to live, you would do well in careers designed along those lines, such as social work, medical research, or fund-raising for other worthy causes. This will allow you to fulfill your need to serve and make a living at it at the same time. Otherwise, you may find that in an effort to help others you will often be taken advantage of by those who will exploit your generosity and dedication.

You try to surround yourself with others who are like-minded and will not tolerate selfish and arrogant people in your inner circle. In truth, at some level you envy those who can be a little selfish, for they have learned what you have not--to say no in order to take care of their own needs.

Be careful not to work so hard that you neglect your health. Since you are prone to stress-related illnesses, be sure to have periodic check-ups. In order to avoid nervous disorders, be sure to get enough rest and to leave the concerns of the rest of the world behind from time to time in order to enjoy yourself.

Moon trine Mercury (Strength: 0.63)

Your emotions are well integrated with your intellect, and you are able to evaluate your reactions to people and situations quickly. You learn easily from your day-to-day experiences, and you use them to enrich your consciousness. You are warm and sympathetic, and others appreciate your good nature and eagerness to help. You also have an amazing memory which allows you to recall past events in detail.

You know what your talents are and how to make use of them through creative expression. You also know how to apply yourself and get the best results on the job, and you are able to see problems objectively. If you know you don't have the answer, you are not afraid to ask for help. It is not in your nature to dwell on negative thoughts, and you could even be of help to others who have this tendency. Yet you will not easily reveal your own personal problems to anyone other than your most trusted friends and relatives.

It is most likely that your home life will be happy, your friendships close, and your social life pleasant. You have the ability to cope with the obstacles life presents to you. And you are compassionate enough to understand and forgive the shortcomings in others.

In your love life you can express your feelings quite clearly and can help your partner do so as well. This will prevent resentments from building over misunderstandings between you. You will probably be more aware of your partner's problems than he or she is. Be patient with them and remember that they may not be so comfortable expressing their emotions as you are.

Sun trine Ascendant (Strength: 0.14)

You have complete confidence in yourself and your ability to succeed in life. People admire your optimism and usually offer their cooperation and support. You are highly creative and combine this gift with a fantastic imagination in your work. On the other hand, you may be apathetic about your talents and even be lazy at times. Be careful to take opportunities when they present themselves. They may not be offered again.

Your parents imbued you with a sense of good character. You accept responsibility for setting and achieving your own financial goals. But you must learn to take constructive criticism. Your chosen career must offer room for growth and security for your twilight years. You appreciate a good challenge and can easily excel in your chosen field if you use your talents well. Others will admire your achievements --which will delight you-- and you will be well compensated for the good job you do. Forming a business partnership with someone who shares your optimism and ambition would almost certainly result in success for you both.

In your love life you express yourself very well with your body language, communicating your sexual interest in someone without words. You can teach your lover a lot through your life experiences.

Saturn inconjunct Uranus (Strength: 0.10)
AstrolDeluxe Chart Interpretation for Albert Einstein

You have a hard time setting priorities in life; this is partly because you are driven by a need to win the approval of others. It is possible that you do not see yourself this way but rather talk yourself into believing that you need please no one but yourself. But examine your feelings and actions more carefully and you will see that you are more concerned than you know about what others think of you.

The idea of making changes in your life is threatening to you; you fear losing the security you now have. But you can't prevent change from happening; it's inevitable. By living in the past, it becomes difficult for you to accept new innovations and technologies as time passes. This can result in your being left behind as the rest of society passes you by. The secret to your success in life lies in the ability to accept change and new experiences. This is the only way that you can grow.

It is possible that you will encounter stressful relationships with lovers. Often your partner is just pushing you to develop the vast potential they see in you. Try to strike a compromise and to trust your loved ones' assessments of your talents. You don't see your own good points as well as others do.

Maintaining a pessimistic and defeatist attitude will only result in physical problems. You are prone to such ailments as arthritis or hardening of the arteries. At the very least, you are grouchy and difficult to deal with at times. Softening your attitude will help soothe the discomforts of your body, which are only a reflection of your inner stiffness.

Your conservative sexual attitude does not permit you to engage in the areas of sex that you would find most gratifying. Consequently, you often enjoy most the areas of sex that make you feel the most guilty. The healthiest use of this energy is to apply it to bedroom fantasies that are acted out. Just be sure your lover knows what is going on.

Venus square Mars  (Strength: 0.06)

Compromise does not come easy to you, and therefore you are not always the easiest person to get along with. This causes problems for you in your close personal relationships. Your desire nature at times seems to rule you, and you will do whatever you have to do to accomplish your goals. Others may accuse you of using people who are in love with you, especially when the feeling is not mutual. Self-indulgence is one of your favorite pastimes, and at times you may overdo it.

You seem to provoke conflict in your life in order to punish yourself for the negative traits in yourself you do not like. In this way you can project this negativity to your "attacker," when in fact he/she is merely reacting to your provocation. At times you can be quite insensitive to the needs of others, and this causes problems in your love life.

The solution to all of the above areas of tension is to learn the art of compromise. Learn to put the needs of others before your own (at least sometimes) and to approach a relationship from the point of view of what you can give, not what you can receive. Tone down your highly active desire nature and resist the temptation to be grabby.

If you can develop a philosophy of patience and generosity, you can succeed in many areas of your life -- career and domestic life included. Along the way you will develop a taste for the finer arts and social graces which can tone down your natural coarse manner.

Neptune sextile Midheaven (Strength: 0.04)

You are an extremely sensitive individual, and you are willing to put your needs aside in order to help others. For this reason, people (and even animals) in need seek you out. It is important that you surround yourself with positive, up-beat people, since you seem to take on the feelings of those around you like a chameleon.

With your strong desire to be of service to others, you could excel in such professions as public relations, health care, social work or religion. You are genuinely concerned about the ills of society and are dedicated to helping make the world a better place. Just don't be discouraged if your efforts don't succeed overnight. Global change takes time.

Since childhood, you've been attracted to the metaphysical sciences and have been curious about the supernatural. You are highly intuitive and could have natural psychic abilities. In fact, you should use your own intuition as a guide in life, rather than depending solely on your intellect and reason.
AstrolDeluxe Chart Interpretation for Albert Einstein

Balance of Elements and Modalities

Abundant Fire

You are an active, future-oriented person who is not weighed down by past commitments. You take advantage of new opportunities better than most. Life for you can be a vibrant affair in which you passionately pursue causes, lovers, and experiences. You have the self-confidence to be a leader. Competitive and flamboyant, you have little patience for slow people or unexciting work. When an activity interests you, you can be very generous with your time, energy, and money. Find outlets for your gifts of creativity and intuition.

Watch out for a tendency to exaggerate or to be insensitive to others' feelings. More cautious types may envy and resent your free spirit and competitive nature. You get bored easily and may depend on others to finish the projects that you start. When your warmth is guided by love, wisdom, and positive goals you have the ability to heal and inspire others, but when you focus on your self or lack direction, your short-lived passions can affect others in destructive ways.

Abundant Earth

You are in touch with the real world. More than others, you know where the rubber meets the road; persistent study has shown you how to make things happen in a practical sort of way. Your nature is well-suited to the adult world of responsibilities, which you master at a young age. Not impulsive with your resources, you would only start a business after careful study, but you would manage it well. You enjoy the satisfaction that comes not just from starting projects, but from finishing them. Your steady, organized approach is actually more productive in the long-run than is that of the quick, flashy types. You know how to establish a pace and keep it.

Do not let your awareness of the material world make you unappreciative of the spiritual plane that underpins our life here -- to which others may be more sensitive than you. Practicality is fine, but try to understand that dreams, feelings, and enthusiasms are also important and should not be squelched. Others might surprise you with what their optimistic risk-taking is able to achieve. You can be so cautious and reserved that some people find you conservative and dull. If you yourself become bored or depressed, admit that security isn't everything and try to be more spontaneous. Open up to the new and follow your bliss (in a careful sort of way).

Lack of Air
AstrolDeluxe Chart Interpretation for Albert Einstein

Expressing yourself does not come easily to you. You distrust people who are fast, smooth talkers. It may be easier for you to express yourself nonverbally or in writing than it is through speaking. If you also lack planets in the houses of Relationships, you will find the normal avenues of communication and social learning blocked. Your thinking will be personal instead of detached or rational. With the mind's normal communication channels blocked, you learn primarily from experience. Lacking in the ability to view yourself objectively, you gain self-understanding primarily through feedback from others.

Try to see life less personally, in a more objective way. Take classes and never stop educating yourself.

A lack of planets in Air signs can be offset by an Air sign ascendant or by abundant planets in the houses of Relationships.

Abundant Substance

With abundant planets in the houses of substance, you know your place in the material world. You know how to extract value and give value via your business, work, and career activities. The rules of the world come easily to you. Others admire and depend on your hard work and practical nature. If you get depressed, make time for recreation and family.

Abundant Relationships

With abundant planets in these houses, relationships and communications with others are likely to be central to your life. You can help others by exchanging ideas and making connections between people. You will probably maintain active contact with a wide circle of relatives, friends and acquaintances. You keep abreast of new information via various media and your friends.

Lack of Endings

You live on the surface of things, afraid to look within at what you really feel and want. Perhaps your position is too precarious or the obligations too great to allow yourself this luxury. You feel forced to maintain your personal status quo. You come across to others as unfeeling. Because personal feelings do not distract you, you might make a good scientist, though be aware that the greatest scientists let intuitive feelings be their guide.

A lack of planets in the houses of Endings can be offset by abundant planets in Water signs.
Lack of Life

You could have difficulty envisioning or planning for the future. You are likely to accept the status quo, living in the past and present, but not actively striving to create the future. Lacking your own passionate goals, you are more likely to be a follower than a leader.

A lack of planets in the houses of Life can be offset by abundant planets in Fire signs.

Balanced Sign Modalities

In your chart, the planets are distributed in a balanced manner between the Cardinal, Fixed, and Mutable modalities. Ability to act and survive in the world is balanced with inner insight. You stick to your values and principles at the same time that you react quickly and adapt to changes. You have the ability to listen as well as to lead. You enjoy life, but also do not shrink from facing challenges.

Abundant Angular

An abundance of planets in the angular houses helps to give you drive and initiative. It makes you active in the external world. Expressing your individuality is important to you. You are probably a leader who enjoys challenges and can get things moving.

Lack of Succedent

A lack of planets in succedent houses gives you a certain emotional detachment. You do not pay much attention to the pleasures of the body or to cultivating a particular group of friends. Enjoying life is not the most important thing to you. You act not on the basis of feeling or principle, but from necessity. You tend to be a restless wanderer of either the world or the mind.

A lack of planets in the Succedent houses can be offset by abundant planets in the Fixed signs.
